Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

Summer made its quiet departure, while Autumn made an equally quiet debut for 1948 at exactly 9:22 P. M. Wednesday night, according to the U. S. Weather bureau. The football season was officially opened here last Friday night when the Stanislaus Rockchaws defeated the Bay High School Tigers, by a score of 45 to 0 but the real test of the game was the line sportsmanship displayed by the two teams and their supporters. There were very few penalties inflicted during the game, and those only for minor infractions of the rules, our hats are off to the players and their coaches. Yes, the high-way bridge was reopened to the public at noon on last Saturday, and you would have thought, from the amount of cars travelling across within the first few hours, that there had never been a bridge across the Bay before, which only goes to prove just how we can miss some thing when it is taken away from us. The New Orleans football season gets under way on Saturday afternoon, when Tulane tangles with Alabama, and you can be sure Bay St. Louis will be well represented in the sell-out crowd, which figures to top 65,000. A severe hurricane whipped across Florida this week and folks locally were keeping their fingers crossed and hoping that its course would continue toward the Atlantic and not change in our direction. The term, "boof-egging," at one time applied almost entirely to the sale of hard liquor, but now since the prices on cigarettes, Louisiana advanced to 27 cents a package, there seems to be quite a lot of bootlegging going on in cigarettes to avoid paying that state's 80-cent per carton tax. Just got the news that the Stanislaus football team have chosen their homecoming queen and her maids to reign at the homecoming game on October 10th. They are Miss Joy Starita, queen; and Misses Jackie Quintini, Joyce Anasardi, Fay Gex, and Norma June Noto, maids. Mr. Mayor, now that the bridge has been reopened, how about putting back the traffic light you know there's a bit of traffic at that intersection and someone's liable to get hurt it could even be you. St. Stanislaus gridiron warriors meet Redemptorist High School in New Orleans, tonight, 7:30. We won their first game by large scores, and quite a number of Bay St. Louis fans are expected to drive over for the game. Many favorable comments have been received about our new column, "Bygone Days" which gives our present generation some inkling of what happened in our town 50 years or so ago, and also gives the few remaining "old-timers" something to reminisce about. The city "fathers," in the city budget for the city fiscal year, 1948-49, published elsewhere in this issue, have set the tax levy at 48 mills for this year's taxes, the highest in the city's history, boy what a load to carry, and we hardly have a decent street on which to trudge our weary way while carrying it. The business of operating the ferry during the bridge emergency, between here and Henderson Point was certainly short-lived, and we are inclined to believe a noble and patriotic gesture, but a rather expensive business venture. I dare rumor says that there is a good part time job as substitute fireman open at the Post Office, if you are interested you might see the Postmaster.

Circuit Court Adjourned Wednesday For Term - Grand Jury Files Report

Machen Case Settled Before Reaching Jury—Ketchum Price Sentenced To Penitentiary—Grand Jury Makes Recommendations

Honorable L. C. Corbin, Judge of the Second Judicial District of Mississippi, adjourned the circuit court of Hancock County for the September term on Wednesday morning. Only one jury case was heard, Esie Machen et al. Versus the Gulf Construction Company. This was a damage suit growing out of the death of the husband and father of the plaintiffs when he was electrocuted at the intersection of St. Francis St. and the Old Spanish Trail at the time that the defendant company was constructing the high powered lines into Bay St. Louis for the Mississippi Power Company. The case was heard on Thursday and Friday, and before the case was submitted to the jury on Friday afternoon, the parties announced that they had reached a settlement.

On last Friday, the court accepted a plea of guilty from one of the defendants, Ketchum Price, who together with other parties was indicted for assaulting and robbing James Therrell, deaf and dumb porter at the Piazza Brothers Barber Shop. The court sentenced the defendant Price to the penitentiary for thirty months.

The jury for the first week was discharged on Friday afternoon, and no jury was summoned for the second week. Court recessed from Friday to Wednesday of this week, at which time, several demurrers and motions were disposed of.

The grand jury returned eight indictments at this term and their report which follows was returned to the court on Friday morning of the first week.

HONORABLE L. C. CORBIN, CIRCUIT JUDGE
We the Grand Jury, assembled for a September Term, 1948, of the Circuit Court, Hancock County, Mississippi, have concluded our labors and beg leave, to make this our final report.

We have been in session five days and have examined thirty-eight witnesses and have investigated twelve separate alleged offenses, and we have returned eight indictments.

We have inspected the County Home maintained for the poor and we found the conditions to be such that we deemed it urgent that a sanitation inspection be made, and we called Dr. C. M. Shipp, County Health Officer and requested him to make an inspection and report back to us which he did and his report is attached hereto and marked exhibit "A."

It is our considered opinion from investigation and from the report of Dr. Shipp that the following recommendation should be followed:

1. That the County Health Department make a monthly inspection of said Home and give a written report to the Board of Supervisors which said report should be transmitted by the Clerk to the next regular Grand Jury.

2. We recommend that the Home for the poor be removed from the present site and that it be located on high ground in order that sanitary conditions may be maintained and comfort provided for the inmates.

3. We recommend that no further expenditure be made on the present site since it appears that it cannot be maintained in such condition as to be a suitable home for the poor. We have requested the County Superintendent of Education to give us a report following the recommendation of the last regular Grand Jury and his report was made in writing a copy of which is attached hereto and marked exhibit "B." We want to commend the County Superintendent of Education for his diligence in complying with the recommendation of the last Grand Jury. We recommend in regard to Sixteenth Section School Lands the following:

1. That the Board of Supervisors and County Superintendent of Education employ a competent timber estimator to make an appraisal of the timber located upon the lands.

2. That said Board of Supervisors and Superintendent of Education ascertain all such other values that may have and inventory of all these values should be made and filed.

We have investigated the County Jail. We find it to be well kept with the exception that there is need for additional sleeping facilities. We found two of the inmates sleeping on one single bed.

We have inspected the Court House and find it to be fairly well kept. We find that there are no adequate fire escapes on the outside of the Court House, these should be installed and maintained.

We find that the records required to be kept by the several County Officials appear to be well kept in so far as we are able to ascertain. We believe that the records can be maintained in the several offices in a more systematic way and thereby facilitate their uses and also their preservation. There should be installed adequate shelving to provide space for the keeping of all records. It appears that the recommendation of the last Grand Jury in regard to proper storage of old records has not been complied with and we recommend that this be done. We also recommend that the window of the vault of the Chancery Clerk be protected with the usual and regular iron bars, so as to insure adequate protection of the records stored in this vault.

St. Stanislaus Football Team Defeats Bay High Friday Night By A Score Of 45-0

Before an estimated crowd of two thousand football fans, the Rock-A-Chaws of St. Stanislaus turned on the heat and trampled a clawing Tiger team 45-0, Friday night.

This was the first meeting of the two Bay St. Louis Schools, but it is hoped many others will follow. The Rocks were jubilant, but the Tiger followers could only look forward to another day.

In the first quarter, the Tigers fumbled 7 times and lost 3 to the winners, two of which accounted for quick touchdowns. The Rocks missed 5 times but were really on the alert and lost only one. The longest run of the game also occurred in the first period, with Levy Ladner going over tackle for 25 yds. and a score.

The Bay High Team was never able to get going through the strong Stanislaus defense, while the offense of the Rocks was clicking perfectly. They were able to run roughshod over the lighter Tigers, making first downs almost at will.

St. Stanislaus piled up 11 first downs to 4 for Bay High and scored 7 touchdowns.

The Rocks completed two passes out of six attempts, with Bay High failing to connect in three tries.

Rock-A-Chaw Captain Joe David scored three touchdowns and Levy Ladner accounted for two, while Buddy Cravetto and George Turcotte tallied one each.

Both teams play away from home this week. St. Stanislaus meets Redemptorist in New Orleans and Bay High meets Long Beach on the Pass Christian field.

Womans Missionary Society Pack Clothes For Overseas

The Womans Missionary Society of the Baptist Church packed boxes of clothes on Tuesday to be sent overseas for the suffering people of Europe. The request by the Society was for clothes materials and toys for the underprivileged children. There was quite a collection of clothing and dress materials, however there were no toys donated.

The Missionary Society would certainly like to be able to send an assortment of toys for these poor children so that they may have a little joy at Christmas. If you have any toys around the house, won't you send them to the Baptist Church for the Missionary Society to send overseas?

The children of the Baptist Sunday School who wish to donate toys are asked to bring them to Sunday School on Sunday, September 28th, Remembrance Day, in giving your little trinkets you will probably make a little boy or girl very happy.

American Legion Baby Contest To Be Held Sunday

The American Legion Baby Contest will be held Sunday Afternoon at 4 P.M. at the Bay High School. This contest was scheduled to be held at the time of the fair given by the Legion, but due to the inclement weather which caused the postponement of the fair on both Sundays it was scheduled to be held, the Legionnaires have decided to hold the contest indoors on next Sunday.

Prizes which have been contributed by local merchants will be awarded in three classes, the first age group from 6 months to one year; the second from one year to two years and the third from two years to four years.

It is expected that there will be a large number of contestants, so the mothers are requested to have the children on hand early, as the contest will be judged at 4 P.M. The contest is open to any Hancock County child in the various age groups. There will be no charge for entry.

Mayor-Elect Warren J. Carver has been named as chairman of the contest and anyone wishing further information should call him.

Mississippi Power Co. Installs Two Way Radio System In Local Office

A two way FM radio system, dedicated to better public service, was installed in Bay St. Louis last week by the Mississippi Power Company.

"This new radio system will speed up handling of service calls and generally facilitate operation of the electric system here," said A. H. Gregory, local manager for the company.

The radios installed, one in the company office and a mobile set on the service truck, are the latest type high frequency equipment. The frequency assigned to the company is too high to be heard even on the latest home type FM receivers.

Two way radios were first used here by the company a year ago, after the disastrous hurricane, and were again in use during the bridge fire in June and the storm early this month. However, they were used on an emergency basis as approval of licenses for the installation had been delayed. The use of this "instant" communication resulted in speedy restoration of service on each occasion.

When a customer calls in now it is not necessary to wait for the servicemen to come in to the office or report in by phone. He can be contacted by radio and given instructions as to the next job to be done—saving time and in some cases needless miles of driving.

Mr. Gregory also said that work is progressing on construction of the substation on the new transmission line west of town where the 110,000 volt line crosses the Kiln road, using transformers temporarily assigned. This work will replace the emergency service connection in effect since the bridge fire. The transformer equipment being installed on a temporary basis will operate until equipment, long on order, is received for the permanent installation.

"Sadie" as he was familiarly known, was a native of Waveland, however he had worked in Bay St. Louis practically all of his life and was well known here. For a great number of years he was in the employ of Mr. W. L. Bourgeois, when he was in the grocery business.

He was married the first time to Miss Sarah Bourgeois, and of this union three children were born, Marie, Alcide J. Jr., and Theresa, who survive Mr. Borgeas; he is also survived by his wife by a second marriage, the former Mrs. Marie Weber.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday morning from the Fahey Funeral Home, with a Requiem Mass at 10 o'clock at the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf. Interment will be in Cedar Rest Cemetery.

Miss Florence Dixon Discusses "World Council Of Churches" At Womans Christian Service Meeting

The Womans Society of Christian Service met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. Buisan Oliver with Mrs. F. J. Nelson, Mrs. Leon Ginn, Mrs. J. B. Goldman as co-hostesses.

The usual reports from the different departments were made and Mrs. C. C. McDonald reported on the Mississippi Conference of the Executive Board of the Society which she had attended recently at Jackson.

Mrs. Bourgeois announced the Chicken Pie supper to be held at her home on Thursday, September 30, from 5:30 to 8:30 p. m. There will be a charge of $1.25 per plate and the proceeds will be used for work on the church and parsonage.

On the committee with Mrs. Bourgeois are Mrs. T. T. Robin and Mrs. J. A. Evans.

Rev. Mr. Oliver, pastor of the church thanked the group for their splendid cooperation and announced an all day retreat for members of the church and the society on October 23, at a place to be selected.

Mrs. N. C. Erwin announced the opening of the study course to be held in October. The theme of the course is "America's Geographical Frontiers" and the first lesson will be given by George Lehlertner on Sunday, October 3 in the church at local church to the spirit and program of the World Council.

Miss Dixon stated that there were ten things which all Christians have in common which makes them members of one beautiful and wonderful church. She listed One Heavenly Father; One Savior; One Bible; One Holy Spirit; The Great Commission to "Go—teach all nations"; One Christmas; one Easter; one prayer of our Lord, which begins "Our Father, Who art in Heaven"; one private prayer of our Lord, which Jesus prayed all alone in the garden the night before he died alone on the cross; and last of all one Church—which is really his body here on earth.

In closing Miss Dixon said this new World Council of Churches has turned out to be one of the biggest, most beautiful things which has happened to the church since the "Day of Pentecost." For now it means that Christians from all over the earth study together, and talk together, and think together, and pray together. In August, 1948 in Amsterdam, Holland the first assembly of this new World Council of Churches was held and 130 different denominations came together on a basis of love for each other and a promise to work together all ways. And so the prayer of Jesus Christ has just come true.

GRAND JURY REPORT

We have not had adequate time to check the electrical wiring of the Court House and Jail, but we find many places where the light wire appear to be in a bad state of affair and we recommend that an electrician make a thorough inspection of the wire so that they may be safely maintained.

We have investigated several reports on unsanitary conditions and we have recommended to the Public Health Department that immediate action be taken to correct all of these conditions.

There appears to be in this County a very fine relationship between the races; and we believe that this relationship can be maintained if all our citizens will respect our established way of life in this County and we recommend for the benefit of all that every effort be made to keep our relationship upon this high plane of mutual benefit to all.

We recommend that in the purchasing of supplies and equipment for and on behalf of the County be by requisitions in order that there may be approved by the proper official and record made of all purchases in order that they may be approved before being paid out of County Funds.

The interest of the citizens generally in our work is appreciated by us and we wish to thank those who have voluntarily come before us and attempted to help us, our work could not be at all successful without the open frank support of the individual citizens.

We want to thank all of the County Officers for their cooperation and assistance to us in our deliberation.

Hancock County Health Department
Bay St. Louis, Mississippi
C. M. SHIPP, M. D. Director
This is the report to the Grand Jury of Hancock County of the investigation and inspection of the Alms House located five miles East of Bay St. Louis on Bayou LaCrosse. The inspection was made on September 14, 1948.

The site for the institution was chosen 1923 and consists of two acres of ground on which there are six buildings, that houses eight patients. Three of these buildings are occupied by the keeper and white patients, one building by negro patients, one building is not occupied. The sixth building is a barn used to house the chickens, a wash room and a storage place for can foods. One of the buildings is on concrete pillars about four feet above the ground, the other buildings except the barn are built on wooden pillars four feet high.

The ground level on the day inspected was about six inches above sea level. Water is standing in the yard and under the houses. Plank walkways are used to pass from one house to another. The mud and rain on the surface of the ground make these walkways dangerous.

House occupied by the keeper has six rooms, bath and toilet. Weather boarding off in two places. Four screens in need of repair. Four leaks in the roof of this house.

House number two has three rooms inside, toilet and bath. Roof leaks in three places, floor on porch rotten and in need of repair. Floors buckled in one room. All screens in need of repair.

House number three weather boarding off sides in one place. All screens in need of repair. One leak around flu pipe.

House number four—leaks so badly it cannot be occupied. This house is not screened.

House number five has four rooms; has no bath nor inside toilet. Leaks badly in all rooms. Floor buckled in one room. Windows badly in need of repair.

The one outside toilet is a pit type latrine, and is filled to the ground level with tide water. On account of water and mud in the walkway inmates cannot get to this toilet without wading in mud and water.

The high water in the September storm stood forty inches on the floors of every building. The high water in the rain storm three weeks ago flooded the yard in three feet of water.

RECOMMENDATIONS

It is suggested that this institution be moved to another location for the following reasons:

First: The ground level is so near sea level that no drainage scheme would improve the situation. The buildings badly in need of repair. A satisfactory standard of sanitation cannot be maintained on the present site. In the event of another storm these inmates would run a great risk of the loss of life. The location for this institution was chosen twenty-five years ago without due regard for living standards and sanitary facilities that meet the present day needs.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
E. E. Breland
Sept. 15 1948

I hereby report that the school buses in Hancock County have been inspected by the Highway Patrolman, County School Board, and myself, and all buses which did not meet State specifications were required to report for a second inspection and all requirements met before they were accepted. These meetings were held August 17, 1948, and August 23, 1948. We feel that we have the best and safest fleet of buses the County has ever owned. All buses will be inspected again at Mid-Term. The Highway Patrolman has been very faithful in helping to inspect these buses and keeping a check on them while on the highways.

Considerable improvements have been made by building new school buildings and repairing the old ones.

The County Administration has been very cooperative with me in checking the school land of Hancock County and working to the interest of all the schools in the County. The State has checked some of the sixteenth section lands, and it is at the present time in the hands of the State to determine what adjustments will be made.

Capture of a small specimen of the rare and beautiful sailfish in the Gulf off Biloxi, Mississippi, a few days ago, featured outdoor news of the past week adding, as it did, a new variety to the already varied fish-life listings of the upper gulf.

The little sailfish, only eighteen inches in length, showed the game proclivities of his species in taking a trolled lure and fighting hard for his freedom. The capture was made by W. H. Shearin, of Atlanta, Georgia, fishing with a party from the cruiser Sun Tan of Biloxi; Captain Pat O'Neal, skipper.

Results of observations extending over many years, backed by the experience of many veteran anglers has proved that fish ordinarily stop biting on an increase in atmospheric pressure as shown by a falling barometer and resume feeding with the passage of storm conditions as indicated by a rising barometer. AL most invariably fishing is excellent immediately after a heavy storm.

Once again has this rule proved true for Sunday and Monday. Immediately following the storm of September 4, fishing was good in nearly all quarters from which reports have been received.

Along the Gulf Coast very large catches of redfish or channel bass were made on Labor Day. Speckled trout, drums, croakers, and other salt water fish bit hungrily and in the fresh water streams and lakes bass and perch were taken in goodly numbers and especially in the larger sizes.

It seems evident that the game fish retreat to the deep waters and remain quiescent during storm periods, then emerge hungry after the storm has passed.

Regulations of the U. S. Department of Fish and Wildlife for the 1948-49 hunting season are being received in varied manners in different parts of the country. Dove shooters in many sections are still arguing among themselves about the noon hour opening of shooting on doves each day throughout the season. Over in Georgia officials of the Georgia conservation department have served notice upon officials of the US department that so far as doves are concerned the enforcement personnel of the state has been ordered to ignore the federal regulations.

It is hoped, by sportsmen generally, that before the opening of the season, September 16, the Georgians will modify their attitude of "secession" as regards a definite defiance of established law.

It would appear, from this writer's viewpoint, that opening the gunning day thirty minutes before actual sunrise is far more reasonable than continuing it to one hour before sunset as at present. Better far, we say, to shoot early, kill your limit of four ducks and get out of the marsh; to shoot, at the latest, not later than 2 p. m. and give the wild fowl a chance to come back to rest and feed during the remainder of the day and night.

Laws are laws, however and, state or federal, they should be obeyed while they stand and changed when found incorrect. No good can come to wilful violations, either to the violator, the state or the game itself.

Simplification of the names of American game fish and the establishment of a single, correct name for each species, has been the prime objective of the Nomenclature Committee of the Outdoor Writers Association of America for some three years. This committee has at last completed its work and has produced, in booklet form, a complete listing of the game fish of the nation.

The importance of "calling" all fish by their right names is great. Confusion must result when anglers, writers and radio speakers off-time speak of the same species by different titles. Now the way is open to remedy this situation for the complete list of America's game fish, in attractive booklet form, may be had free for the asking and enclosure of a stamped, self-addressed envelope, by writing OWAA Headquarters, 10, East Lexington Street, Baltimore, Maryland. The booklet is titled "The Standard Check List of American Sport Fishes."

Let's start calling em right.

The 1948 Conference of the National Association of Conservation and Publicity convenes on September 16th, in Ohio—at the invitation of the president, Jim Harlan, Mississippi's Hendrix. Hendrix will address the group on "The Smaller States—Their Problems and Possibilities." The boys up east need to know what's going on down south—loads of luck, Hendrix.

A. & G. THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY "WALLS OF JERICHO"

Cornel Wilde, Linda Darnell, Anne Baxter, Kirk Douglas, Starred.

Staring Cornel Wilde, Linda Darnell, Anne Baxter and Kirk Douglas with a cast of outstanding players, "The Walls of Jericho," Twentieth Century-Fox's eagerly-awaited filmization of Paul L. Wellman's sensational best-seller opens Sunday at the A. & G. Theatre. A probing and provocative story set against the background of color and violence of the High Plains country as it emerged from raw frontier days into the early 1900's, the film provides its quartet of top stars with their most challenging roles to date.

"The Walls of Jericho" unfolds the dramatic and suspenseful tale of the bitter battle for power between two men, and of a girl's yearning for a love that took root in the oppressive atmosphere of a town that couldn't hold it. It is a story of passionate conflict flamed by a coldly calculating and beautiful woman who would let nothing stand in the way of her consuming ambition. In what is being considered his finest role to date, Cornel Wilde is seen as David Connors, the young county attorney who baffles

To film the picture, twentieth Century-Fox reconstructed the town of Jericho of 1908 as Wellman described it in his book, and peopled it with a thousand actors. On sixteen acres of its back lot the studio constructed the city, complete with buildings, brick streets, gas lamps posts, county courthouse and a railroad station, authentic in every detail.

"The Walls of Jericho" was directed by John M. Stahl who is known for his outstanding successes with "Leave Her To Heaven," "The Keys of the Kingdom" and many other pictures based on best-sellers. Lamar Trotti, who wrote and produced "The Ox-Bow Incident" and who wrote "The Razor's Edge" for the screen, adapted "The Walls of Jericho" and produced the film. Included in the top-notch supporting cast are Marjorie Rambeau, Henry Hull, Colleen Townsend, Barton MacLane, Griff Barnett, William Tracy and Art Baker.

The film's romantic interest is blended with action and excitement as Algeria puts into effect her wily

In the early days "gushers" were symbolic of the petroleum industry. A new well spurting oil and gas hundreds of feet in the air was an exciting spectacle but it meant the loss of thousands of barrels of oil and millions of cubic feet of gas. Through scientific research petroleum engineers are solving this problem of waste by developing methods to control the tremendous pressure encountered far below the earth's surface. As a result, today "gushers" are rare occurrences and drillers are usually able to complete their wells with a minimum of waste.

Keeping step with progress, the oil and gas industry in Mississippi is utilizing every modern method to obtain the greatest possible recovery of these valuable natural resources. In so doing it is subscribing to the principles of sound conservation and the provisions of the modern conservation law recently enacted by the legislature. Through this new law the people of Mississippi are assured that our oil and gas reserves will be produced with maximum efficiency.

To this end the efforts of this Association are directed because what helps the sound development of our oil and gas resources helps Mississippi and all Mississippians.

State Fair To Be Held In Jackson Week Of October 11-16

Jackson—(Special)—Plans for the greatest Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Exposition, scheduled for the week of October 11-16 at the State Fairgrounds here, were unfolded today by Mr. J. M. Dean, secretary-manager of the State Fair, as he announced that the 1948 State Fair catalog would be distributed early this week.

"Visitors who attend this year's Fair will be afforded a complete picture of the Magnolia State's wealth in natural resources, her agricultural advancement and her industrial development and progress," Mr. Dean stated.

"We plan to mail our 1948 catalog to numerous agencies and exhibitors interested in entering exhibits in the Fair. We believe that this year's fair will be greater than ever from the standpoint of both number of exhibitors and the number of visitors."

The 1948 State Fair is under the direction of the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Exposition Commission. Members of the commission include: Si Corbin, Commissioner of Agriculture; J. M. Jones, Director of Extension Service; J. M. Dean, Executive Secretary; Ransom Aldrich, President, Mississippi Livestock Association; H. E. Mauldin, Director of Vocational Education, State Department of Education; J. Donovan Ready; and R. S. Withers, city commissioner of Jackson.

Mr. Dean related that many improvements had been made in renovating the Fairgrounds and buildings and that crews would be busy until the opening date of the Fair effecting many additional face-lifting operations so that all facilities would be in readiness for the huge array of commercial exhibits and farm produce that will be on display and for the high-bred cattle, swine and poultry that will be entered in the contests.

The fat 68-page catalog which sets the tentative schedule and dates for the many events of Fair Week, indicates that more than $20,000 in premiums will be awarded to winners of top-place exhibits in 13 departments including beef breeding cattle, junior livestock, swine, junior dairy cattle, senior dairy cattle, poultry, 4-H Club activities, vocational education, soil area exhibits, state corn show, women's work, floral and Hinds County unit activities. Other events will be announced later.

The Fair catalog contains statements by Governor Fielding L. Wright and Lieutenant Governor Sam Lumpkin, urging citizens from all parts of the state to attend the Fair.

Governor Wright, in a short statement, said "Fairs and Expositions in Mississippi occupy an important place in the development of agriculture and industry, and I wish to express my personal interest and cooperation."

Lt. Gov. Lumpkin, in his prepared statement, said "Those who attend the Mississippi State Fair and Exposition will find the opportunity there of seeing numerous products of Mississippians and many reasons for pride in your State."

"It is with the belief that you will want to acquaint yourself with the latest developments in agriculture and industry that we, particularly urge you to attend the 1948 State Fair," Lt. Gov. Lumpkin's statement concluded.

Mr. Dean said that Monday of Fair Week would be named "Press Day" and that all exhibits and amusements would be open; Tuesday day is "Veterans Day"; Wednesday, "State, County and Municipal Government and Civic Organizations Day"; Thursday, "Farmers Day" and "Livestock Day" and "Aviation Day"; Friday, "School Day (Children's Day)"; and Saturday "Mississippi Travellers Day."

Entries in the various department contests must be received at Mr. Dean's office in the Old Capitol Building, Jackson, no later than October 1, Mr. Dean said. The fair catalog clearly sets forth the general rules and regulations covering livestock entries. Additional instructions and information about specific department contests are noted under respective department headings. Persons interested in obtaining copies of the fair catalog should send directly to Mr. J. M. Dean, Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Exposition Commission, Old Capitol, Jackson, Mississippi.

Mr. Dean also announced the Barnes-Carruthers Theatrical Enterprises would present gala grandstand show at the Fairgrounds nightly. The musical extravaganza will feature a spectacular outdoor ensemble and a variety of all-new dramatically presented acts.

The Midway will be opened by Royal American Show with an all-new line-up of entertainments starring Miss Sally Rand and her presentation of 40 featured performers.

Noxubee County Youth Wins State Award Sponsored By National Dairy Products Corporation

Dan Taylor, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Taylor, Noxubee County, Mississippi, recently won the central district Star Dairy award sponsored by the National Dairy Products Corporation through the Kraft Foods Company.

He has been a member of the Brooksville FFA Chapter. He has taken three years of vocational agriculture work at the Brooksville High School where he is a junior this fall.

Three years ago, Taylor started dairying with eight cows and eight heifers. Today he is milking six cows and has nine heifers and two calves. During this time he has been continually culling the poor producers and improving his herd. Recently he added to his herd a fine registered Holstein heifer and a bull with which to start building a registered herd.

In addition to the milking and caring for his herd, which has brought in over $6,000 through the sale of milk and animals the past three years, Taylor grows all the hay and grain fed to his cows on the farm.

The award, presented to Taylor by Kraft field service man John Moore, Brooksville, Miss., included a $50 check from the National Dairy Products Corporation.

Dairying has been Taylor's main project during the three years he has been on the farm. He has a planned pasture program with plenty of supplementary grazing to keep up production through the hot summer months and for winter grazing. In the past few days Taylor has purchased a new tractor which will make the farming job easier and enable him to do things he could not do before.

Taylor says he will keep right on milking cows, shipping the milk to the Brooksville plant, until his number comes up in the Army. He is making plans so that he can continue dairying when he returns from the service.

This is the first award Taylor has won in FFA work. When asked if he worked hard on this contest, he replied, "I didn't try to be a winner, but I am always trying to do the best job I can."

"From where I sit"
...by Joe Marsh

"What's YOUR Opinion, Mister?"

Fellow from one of those public opinion polls was in the neighborhood grocery querying us on everything from that "new look" to the next election.

And it occurred to me that there's nothing more typically American than collecting other folk's opinions, as well as giving out with one's own. And from where I sit, it's a mighty healthy habit.

So long as people can discuss both sides of a question that comes up—whether it concerns short skirts versus long, the importance of the legal sale of beer, or the outcome of November's election—we're sure of the individual liberty that has made this country great.

For it isn't differences of opinion that matter. The important thing is tolerance for differences of opinion—whether they affect the right of an individual to speak his mind, or enjoy a glass of legal beer, the beverage of moderation. They're all parts of the freedom that we cherish!

MARCH AND APRIL, 1896

There were rumors that a new fruit canning factory was to be organized at an estimated cost of $2,500.

Mrs. H. R. Piccalouga and her daughter Angelina of New Orleans were visitors to the Bay.

The price to have a tooth extracted in days past was .25 per tooth.

A cyclone of terrific strength struck the Sound and touched the shores of Bay St. Louis and Waveland causing considerable damage. In Bay St. Louis a fishing house belonging to Mr. Frank Taconi was destroyed, also a number of bath houses. In Waveland a number of piers were destroyed.

Bay St. Louis had 160 registered voters.

George Arbo was elected Mayor in the city election; L. H. vonGohren, alderman of the first ward; Joseph L. Favre, alderman of the second ward; Peter Ramond alderman of the third ward; Etienne Ladner, alderman of the fourth ward; Richard Mendes, secretary; Ferdinand Egloff, treasurer; John P. Idoor, Tax Collector and Assessor; and George W. Maynard, was elected marshal.

The new St. Joseph's church erected near the canning factory was blessed by the Rev. Father LeDuc, who celebrated a high Mass in honor of the occasion, on March, 19.

Mr. W. W. Stockstill and Miss Lena Driver were married by Rev. L. N. Brock of Moss Point.

Mr. Harvey Bates and Miss May Meek were married in the Methodist church here.

Bay St. Louis could boast of having seven barber shops in operation.

Bicycles were all the rage in 1896, and anyone desiring to do so could rent one for .25 an hour.

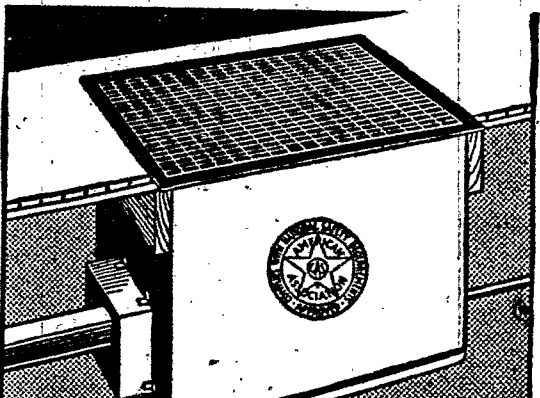

Electric lights were to become a reality in Bay St. Louis; the mayor formed a committee headed by Mr. L. Sportorno to look into the estimated cost of such a civic improvement.

ORTIE THEATRE SUNDAY - MONDAY "TAP ROOTS"

In Technicolor With Susan

Hailed unanimously as the year's outstanding technicolor drama, "Tap

Roots," which co-stars Van Heflin and Susan Hayward, and has more action in the leading featured role will open Sunday at the Ortie Theatre. The lavish movie spectacle, a

George Marshall production, is presented by Walter Wanger and is a arized from James Street's best-selling novel of the same name "Tap

Roots," is a saga of the independent

Lebanese clan of Lebanon County which seceded from Mississippi prior to the Civil War.

Van Heflin, as Keith Alexander, a renegade newspaper publisher, falls in love with Morna Dabney, played by Miss Hayward, and for this reason alone joins the Dabney's in their rebellion. Heflin's famous dueling pistols, Alpha and Omega, are reared by any man who crosses him. The beautiful, red-haired Morna, as portrayed by Miss Hayward, gives her love to two men and in keeping with the times lives for the hour. Karloff as Tishomingo, the Choctaw Indian, whose bullwhip is as deadly as Herlin's dueling pistols, is a friend of the Dabney's.

defiant father Hoab Dabney. Richard Long plays the hot-headed younger brother. Screen newcomer, Whitfield Connor is said to be impressive in one of the film's key Portrayals.

With action centered on Lebanon

County in Mississippi, the story of "Tap Roots" begins in 1860. When Lebanon County, under the leadership of Hoab Dabney, becomes a free and independent community.

Dramatic incidents which follow, including Lebanon County's furious

but futile conflict with the might and millions of the Confederacy, are said to have been filmed on a vast scale without the sacrifice of intimate detail. Producer Marshall directed the picture from a screenplay by

Alan LeMay and additional dialogue

Resolutions of Love and Esteem For Mrs. Isabelle Joyner

On Sunday, August 22, 1948 God in his wisdom took from us one of our most beloved women, Mrs. Isa. Joyner.

It is as we would have it that she has passed from sunset to dawn into the presence of her Father, or where she will feel at home. Her passing brought profound grief to her family, her friends, her neighbors, the people of her church, and all who came in contact with her Christian influence.

Although she was not blessed with children of her own, she was a real mother to many a boy and girl, and during our recent war many a lonely boy found comfort in her humble home, where she tried to take the place of his mother far away.

We who are left behind will always treasure the years we spent with her.

She was an active member of our church being one of its oldest members. At one time when her health permitted, she was an active Sunday School teacher; also one of the oldest and most active members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and we the members wish to pay tribute to her memory.

Therefore, be it resolved that we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, that we pay tribute of love and respect to her whose memory we shall always hold dear.

Her loyalty to her God, her family, her friends, her church, her quiet manner in serving all, were foremost in her life.

Resolved that we extend to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy and pray the Heavenly Father to comfort, and sustain them.

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family—a copy be spread upon the records of our society, and a copy be sent to the Mississippi Methodist Advocate and our local paper "The Sea Coast Echo."

Mrs. A. J. Tognotti, President.
Mrs. F. J. Nelson, District secretary,
Christian Social Relations.

Hobolochitto Baptist Association To Hold
92nd. Session

The churches composing the Hobolochitto Baptist Missionary Association will convene in their ninety-second annual session on Thursday and Friday before the first Sunday in October 1948 with Mill Creek Baptist Church five miles east of Piquette in the Salem community.

These two days of church messengers assembly will be September 30th and October 1st. The meeting will be called to order promptly at 10:00 a. m. Thursday. The churches should have their messengers elected and letters prepared so as to be on time. Each church is allowed three messengers and two alternates.

Elder Joe Harris, pastor of the host church, states that they are looking for a large gathering, both from the local churches and visitors from other sections of the state. Meals will be served at the church and the homes of the community will provide places to sleep for those who are not in reach of their homes.

This old association is made up of churches in Hancock and Pearl River counties and is named after the placid little stream which winds its way through the territory it embraces. The recently organized Cedar Point Baptist church of Bay St. Louis cooperates with this local group of churches. Other churches in Hancock County are, Spanish Trail Baptist Church just five miles west of town on the Hi-way, Catahoula, Anner, Benville, Spring Branch, Lee's Chapel (Lee Town), Shiloh, Wolf Creek and Zion at Gainesville. The largest number of the churches are in Pearl River County.

EVER SEE AN-ICE STORM
Inside A PIPE LINE?

High pressure natural gas pipe lines may be subject to miniature ice storms when outside temperatures drop to 40 or 50 degrees. If permitted to continue, the ice would ultimately choke off the flow of gas through the line. That's because particles of water mixed with certain petroleum vapors in high pressure pipe lines will freeze at temperatures far above the normal freezing point of 32 degrees. Nearly all natural gas contains moisture as it leaves the well, so it is necessary to install such facilities as heaters, separators and dehydrators to remove the liquids and vapors before the gas is placed in pipe lines for movement to market. This is one of many functions of the United Gas organization—all of which have the ultimate purpose of assuring a dependable supply of natural gas for our customers.

A heater must be installed at each high pressure well to prevent freezing of moisture contained in the gas.

The wet gas passes into a separator where it expands and drops its free liquids.

Water vapors are removed in a dehydrator, which contains materials that soak up the vapors like a sponge.

Mass Celebrated For Students Of Catholic Schools

Pep Day Held At Bay High School Friday

The students of St. Joseph Academy, St. Stanislaus and St. Stanislaus Free School, together with members of the faculties, parents and many friends attended a special Mass on Wednesday Morning, September 22nd, at 7 o'clock.

Right Reverend Monsignor Andrew J. Gmelch, was celebrant of the Mass, which is said each year at the beginning of the School Term, invoking the protection of Our Lord and His Blessed Mother for a successful year for all of the Students.

Many of the students received Holy Communion.

Following the Mass there was Solenn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Friday was Pep Day at Bay High and the cheer leaders for 1948-49 were all dressed up in their blue and gold uniforms which they were wearing for the first time. Their little mascot Nita Kay Erwin also wore a blue and gold uniform fashioned as the older girls and she was quite alive to the importance of the day.

The cheer leaders had some very clever yells several of which were composed by the girls and boys. They built up a lot of enthusiasm and had a lot of applause. Short talks were made by Coach Guillery, Mr. Broadus and assistant coach Norman Hall.
